Your Wine School of Philadelphia certification remains valid whether or not you transfer it to the National Wine School’s digital system.

A digital transfer makes your credential easier to verify and helps establish your academic record within the NWS system. It may also be necessary if you plan to continue along the NWS pathway toward Advanced or Master-level credentials.

If you earned your WSOP certification before January 2024 and would like it added to the NWS system, visit Sommelier Credential Verification & Digitization for current details and fees.
