Do I need a membership to take the Core Sommelier Program?

Membership is not required to enroll in the Core Sommelier Program, but we recommend it. It’s a great way to continue learning outside the classroom, meet other wine lovers, and enjoy more of what the Wine School has to offer.

Active members receive benefits such as member pricing on eligible classes and courses, Cellar Credits, and access to eligible member events and experiences.

Some Core Sommelier enrollment offers include a period of membership at no separate charge. Check the details of your specific program or offer to see whether membership is included and what happens when the included period ends.
